JEFFREY A KRAMER

“The two greatest days in a person’s life are the day they are born, and the day they discover why.”

~ Mark Twain

Overarching Vision (my big dream)

Imagine a tribe of people committed to building a better world - Physical, Cultural, Social, Familial or Spiritual. A tribe of people who see a need for leadership, and seek to provide it. A tribe of people with integrity, character and a servant's heart, who are willing to invest in themselves so they can serve themselves and others.

Imagine a cause based on providing opportunities and resources to help people become Perfectly Unhackable. A cause planned around growth through self-reflection and deep introspection. A cause meant to create ascending life, work and play.

Imagine a space designed to nourish and encourage hearts and minds. A space where people are able to speak freely, share safely, and learn greatly. A space constructed to clarify callings, overcome obstacles, and define directions.

Purpose (the defining statement of my work)

Helping people to Clarify their Calling,
Overcome Life's Obstacles, and Define their Dreams so they Escape to Excellence, achieving Unhackability in life, work, and play.

Unifying Strategies (what's necessary for me to achieve this)

Construct Myself: By intentionally focusing on my own personal growth and development, I become better equipped to fully serve others and model the way.

Construct a Collaborative Community: By strategically connecting with a community of like-minded people, I create synergistic relationships that maximize all our results.

Construct Content: By creatively developing resources and experiences that provide meaningful growth and improvement for others, I impact lives, communities and organizations.

Construct a Platform: By effectively leveraging my community and content with integrity and authenticity, I expand my reach and influence to a greater audience.

Construct Ascending Leaders: By regularly sharing myself and my content with my community and beyond, I develop people who are encouraged, equipped and empowered to make a difference in their world.
